

BUS MONITOR/TEACHER AIDE

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is routine work involving responsibility for overseeing the loading and unloading of student passengers, and for attending to their needs, comfort, and conduct while in transit, including students that require additional assistance, where so assigned. Direct supervision is exercised over student passengers as required. The work also involves responsibility for assisting school teachers in the performance of their teaching functions by performing a variety of non-professional activities which, while related to the teaching process, can be done by non-professional personnel. This class differs from that of a School Monitor in that the activities performed by a Teacher Aide are generally more complex and require specific skills or abilities. Remedial assistance is provided to students who require additional training and exercise in certain subject matters following guidelines established by the classroom teacher. The work is performed under the general supervision of the teacher concerned. Does related work as required.
