

CORPORAL

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: The work involves responsibility for supervising activities of Deputy Sheriffs and other personnel on an assigned shift. Incumbents are normally given a primary assignment in a specific division, i.e. road patrol, communications, investigations, or civil, but may be required to work in and supervise personnel in any or all divisions, and may on occasion work in and supervise personnel in corrections. An employee in this class assigns, inspects, and schedules the work of subordinate personnel. The work is performed under the general supervision of a higher-ranking officer. An incumbent supervises and assists department personnel in coping with difficult law enforcement situations, and organizes and coordinates the department's activities in responding to emergency situations. The work differs from that of higher-level titles in the Sheriff's Office in that the Corporal has less latitude for independent decision-making and must defer to a higher-ranking officer in matters involving complex interpretation of policies, internal investigations, or determination of minimum staffing levels, though the Corporal may carry out the instructions of a higher-ranking officer in their absence. Does related work as required.
