

(g) The Treasurer may, in the Treasurer's discretion and in lieu of the payment of any refund determined to be due, allow credit therefore on and against payments due from the applicant.

Section 15. Disposition of Revenues.

(a) All revenues resulting from the imposition of the tax under this local law shall be paid into the treasury of the County and shall be credited and deposited into a special tourism development and promotion fund under the trust and care of the Treasurer, and thereafter to be allocated for the promotion and development of the tourism industry in Delaware County by a committee hereafter established (section 15, part b) as the Tourism Advisory Board; provided, however, that the County shall have the right to retain up to ten per cent (10%) of the gross revenues to cover the Treasurer's costs for administration and collection; and

(b) The Board of Supervisors shall establish a committee known as the Tourism Advisory Board which shall review and approve proposals for the use of the funds raised from this tax for the promotion and development of the tourism industry in Delaware County. The Tourism Advisory Board shall be comprised of seven (7) persons, to be appointed by the Delaware County Board of Supervisors, for staggered terms of three years. Appointments shall be made upon the recommendation of the Director of Economic with effort to ensure geographical representation of the County, per the following:

1. The Director of Economic Development of Delaware County.
2. Two members of the County Board of Supervisors.
3. Four representatives of businesses actively engaged in the tourism industry, at least two of which should be representative of lodging operators.

The Tourism Advisory Board shall report quarterly to the Delaware County Board of Supervisors' Committee on Economic Development with regards to all expenditures, as well as all plans and marketing. Revenues paid from the Treasurer's Office and all expenditures shall be accepted, paid and recorded with the Treasurer's Office of Delaware County.

Section 16. Reserves.

Whenever the occupant or operator has applied for a refund and has instituted a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules to review a determination adverse to such occupant or operator on such application for refund, the Treasurer shall set up appropriate reserves to meet any decision adverse to the County.

Section 17. Remedies exclusive.

The remedies provided by sections thirteen and fourteen of this local law shall be exclusive remedies available to any person for the review of tax liability imposed by this local law; and no determination or proposed determination of tax or determination on any application for refund or credit shall be enjoined, contested or reviewed by any action or proceeding, except by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules pursuant to section twenty-three of this local law.

Section 18. Proceedings to recover tax.

Whenever any operator or other person shall fail to collect and pay over any tax and/or to pay any tax, penalty or interest imposed by this local law as herein provided, or whenever any occupant shall fail to pay any such tax, penalty or interest, the County Treasurer may utilize any and all remedies as provided by law to collect such sum, including but not limited to the imposition of a tax lien upon the real property and personal property of the owners or operator. The lien of this tax shall have priority over all other real and personal property liens in the same manner as a real property tax levied pursuant to the New York State Real Property Tax Law.

Section 19. General Powers of the Treasurer.

In addition to the powers granted to the Treasurer by County Law and this local law, the Treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered:

- (a) To make, adopt and amend rules and regulations, and to issue orders, appropriate to the carrying out of this local law and the purposes thereof;
- (b) To extend for cause shown the time of filing any return for a period not exceeding thirty days; and for cause shown, to remit or waive penalties but not interest; and to compromise disputed claims in connection with the taxes hereby imposed;
- (c) To request information from the tax commission of the state of New York or the treasury department of the United States relative to any person; and to afford information to such tax commission or such treasury department relative to any person, any other provision of this local law to the contrary notwithstanding;
- (d) To delegate his or her functions hereunder to any employee or employees of the County Treasurer;
- (e) To prescribe methods for determining the rents for occupancy and to determine the taxable and non-taxable rents;
- (f) To require any operator within the county to keep detailed records of the nature and type of hotel or motel maintained, nature and type of service rendered, the rooms available and rooms occupied daily, lease's or occupancy contracts or arrangements, rents received, charged and accrued, the names and addresses of the occupants, whether or not any occupancy is claimed to be subject to the tax imposed by this local law, and to furnish such information upon request to the County Treasurer;
- (g) To assess, determine, revise and readjust the taxes imposed under this local law.

Section 20. Administration of Oaths and Compelling Testimony.

- (a) The Treasurer, or the Treasurer's duly designated and authorized employee(s) or agent(s), shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits in relation to any matter or proceeding in the exercise of the Treasurer's powers and duties under this local law.
- (b) The Treasurer shall have power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents to secure information pertinent to the performance of his duties hereunder and of the enforcement of this local law, and to examine them in relation thereto, and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before the Treasurer or excused from attendance.
- (c) A justice of the Supreme Court, either in court or at chambers, shall have power summarily to enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, papers and documents called for by the subpoena of the Treasurer under this local law.
- (d) Any person who shall refuse to testify or to produce books or records or who shall testify falsely in any material matter pending before the Treasurer under this local law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishment for which shall be a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

(e) The officers who serve the summons or subpoena of the Treasurer and witnesses attending in response thereto shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to officers and witnesses in civil cases in courts of record, except as herein otherwise provided.

(f) The County Sheriff, the Sheriff's duly appointed deputies, and any officer or employee of the Treasurer designated to serve process under this local law, are hereby authorized and empowered to serve any summons, subpoena, order, notice, document, instrument, or other process to enforce or carry out this local law.

Section 21. Reference to tax.

Wherever reference is made in placards or advertisements or in any other publications to this tax such reference shall be substantially in the following form: "Tax on occupancy of hotel or motel rooms"; except that in any bill, receipt, statement or other evidence or memorandum of occupancy or rent charge issued or employed by the operator, the word "tax" will suffice.

Section 22. Penalties, Interest & Violations.

(a) Any person failing to file a return or to pay or pay over any tax to the Treasurer within the time required by this local law shall be subject to

- (1) a penalty of five per centum (5%) of the amount of tax due; plus
- (2) interest at the rate of one per centum (1%) of the amount of tax due for each month of delay, except that no interest shall be charged for the first thirty (30) days immediately after the date such return was required to be filed or such tax became due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, the Treasurer may, if satisfied that the delay was excusable, cancel and remit all or part of such penalty, but may not cancel or remit any portion of the interest.

(c) All penalties and interest shall be paid and disposed of in the same manner as other revenues from this local law.

(d) Unpaid penalties and interest may be enforced in the same manner as the tax imposed by this local law.

(e) Officers and/or members of an owner or operator which is a corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or partnership shall be personally liable for the tax collected or required to be collected and paid by such corporation under this local law, and shall also be personally liable for the penalties and interest herein imposed.

(f) In addition to the penalties herein or elsewhere prescribed, any person found to have committed any of the following acts shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishment for which shall be a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment:

- (1) failing to file a return required by this local law,
- (2) filing or causing to be filed, or making or causing to be made, or giving or causing to be given, any return, certificate, affidavit, representation, information, testimony or statement required or authorized by this local law which is willfully false,

- (3) willfully failing to file a bond required to be filed pursuant to this local law,
- (4) failing to file a registration certificate and such data in connection therewith as the Treasurer may by order, regulation or otherwise require,
- (5) failing to display, or to surrender upon demand of the Treasurer, the certificate of authority as required by this local law,
- (6) assigning or transferring such a certificate of authority,
- (7) willfully failing to charge separately from the rent the tax herein imposed, or willfully failing to state such tax separately on any evidence of occupancy and on any bill or statement or receipt of rent issue or employed by the operator,
- (8) willfully failing or refusing to collect any tax imposed by this local law from the occupant, or
- (9) failing to keep or maintain the records required by this local law.

(g) The certificate of the County Treasurer to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return, bond or registration certificate has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied pursuant to the provisions of this local law, shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

Section 23. Judicial Review.

Any final determination of the amount of any tax payable pursuant to this local law, as well as any final determination on an application for refund or credit under section 14 of this local law, shall be reviewable for error, illegality or unconstitutionality or any other reason whatsoever by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules if application therefore is made to the supreme court within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such final determination, provided, however, that any such proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law-and rules shall not be instituted unless:

(a) The amount of any tax sought to be reviewed, with such interest and penalties thereon as may be provided for by local law or regulation shall be first deposited and there is filed an undertaking, issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the superintendent of insurance of this state as to solvency and responsibility, in such amount as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed the petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding; or

(b) At the option of the petitioner such undertaking may be in a sum sufficient to cover the taxes, interests and penalties stated in such determination plus the costs and charges which may accrue against it in the prosecution of the proceeding, in which event the petitioner shall not be required to pay such taxes, interest or penalties as a condition precedent to any tax imposed pursuant to this section shall have been erroneously, illegally or unconstitutionally collected and application for the refund thereof duly made to the proper fiscal officer or officers, and such officer or officers shall have made a determination denying such refund, such determination shall be reviewable by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, provided, however, that such proceeding is instituted within thirty days after the giving of the notice of such denial, that a final determination of tax due was not previously made, and that an undertaking is filed with the proper fiscal officer or officers in such amount and with such sureties as a justice of the supreme court shall approve to the effect that if such proceeding be dismissed or the tax confirmed, the petitioner will pay all costs and charges which may accrue in the prosecution of such proceeding.

Section 24. Returns to be secret.

- (a) Except in accordance with proper judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law,
 - (1) it shall be unlawful for the Treasurer or any agent, employee or designee of the Treasurer to divulge or make known in any manner the rents or other information relating to the business of an operator contained in any return required under this local law; and
 - (2) the officers charged with the custody of such returns shall not be required to produce any of such returns or evidence of anything contained therein in any action or proceeding in any court, except on behalf of the Treasurer in an action or proceeding under the provisions of this local law, or on behalf of any party to any action or proceeding under the provisions of this local law when the returns or facts shown thereby are directly involved in such action or proceeding, provided that in either of which events the court may require the production of, and may admit in evidence, so much of said returns or of the facts shown thereby, as are pertinent to the action or proceeding and no more.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit

- (1) the delivery to a taxpayer or such taxpayer's duly authorized representative of a copy of any return filed in connection with this local law, or
- (2) the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular returns and items thereof, or
- (3) the inspection by the county attorney or other legal representatives of the county, or by the district attorney of any county, of the return(s) of any taxpayer who shall bring action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted for the collection of a tax or penalty.

(c) Returns shall be preserved by the Treasurer for not less than three (3) years or for such longer period of time as the Treasurer determines.

(d) Any violation of paragraph (a) of this section shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court, and if the offender be an officer or employee of the county such officer or employee shall be dismissed from office or service with the county.

Section 25. Notices and Limitations of Time.

(a) Any notice authorized or required under the provisions of this local law may be given by mailing the same to the person for whom it is intended in a postpaid envelope addressed to such person at the address given in the last return filed pursuant to the provisions of this local law, or in any application made by such person, or if no return has been filed or application made then to such address as may be obtainable.

(b) The mailing of such notice shall be presumptive evidence of the receipt of the same by the person to whom addressed.

(c) Any period of time which is determined according to the provisions of this local law by the giving of notice shall commence to run from the date of mailing of such notice.

(d) The provisions of the civil practice law and rules or any other law relative to limitations of time for the enforcement of a civil remedy shall not apply to any proceeding or action taken by the county to levy, appraise, assess, determine or enforce the collection of any tax or penalty provided by this local law.

Section 26. Limitation of Effect of Local Law.

This local law shall remain in full force and effect for a period of three (3) years from the date of enactment by the Board of Supervisors; except that nothing shall prohibit or prevent the adoption and enactment of subsequent local laws continuing or imposing the tax authorized hereby after the expiration of this local law.

Section 27. Separability.

If any provision of this local law or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, the remainder of this local law and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Section 28. Effective Date.

This local law shall take effect upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State of New York State.

I hereby certify that the local law annexed hereto, designated as Local Law No. 13 of 2015 of the County of Delaware was duly passed by the Board of Supervisors on November 24, 2015, and was approved. Such local law was not subject to permissive referendum in accordance with the applicable provisions of law.

I further certify that I have compared the preceding local law with the original on file in this office and that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of such original local law, and was finally adopted in the manner indicated in paragraph above.

Christa M. Schafer, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
Date: November 30, 2015

(Seal)

STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF DELAWARE

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that the foregoing local law contains the correct text and that all proper proceedings have been had or taken for the enactment of the local law annexed hereto.

Porter L. Kirkwood, Delaware County Attorney
